Our software is licensed to cover a full year only. Purchasing an AnyRec license will allow you to use the software from the date of purchase until the same date next year. You are entitled to all updates and improvements issued during the period of the licence.

We offer all of our software as a 30 day free trial which enables you to try our software before you decide to make a purchase. We encourage all users to fully evaluate the software during this trial period in order to assess its suitability for your requirements. The current version is a trial only version set to expire at the end of July 2024. Charging for products will begin then.

After a purchase has been made, we regret that we are unable to offer any refund, other than one such warranted under your normal statutory rights. This software is designed to be used by those who have the relevant expertise to operate it and provides multiple opportunities to control and review the accuracy and validity of the results. Morgallion cannot therefore accept liability for errors made in its use.
